

James C. Akers

Hagerstown, 75

James "Jim" C. Akers, 75, Hagerstown, died Monday, September 5, 2016, at the home of his daughter surrounded by his loving family.

Born Monday, June 30, 1941, in

Crystal Springs, he was the son of the late Charles Wellington Akers Sr. and the late Mary Elizabeth (Kagarise) Akers.

He graduated from Southern Fulton High School in 1959, and served as Airman First Class in the United States Air Force, from 1959-1964. He was a graduate of Florida Technical College and retired in 1995, from Farmers and Mechanics National Bank in Frederick, where he served as senior vice president and manager of data processing. He was an avid outdoorsman and enjoyed hunting, fishing and gardening. He was a member of Paramount Baptist Church.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 51 years, Doris Lee (McCray) Akers; a sister, Lois McGear, and brothers: Allen and Robert Akers.

He is survived by his daughters: Sandra Parsons, Mount Union, and Sonja Kirchner, Hagerstown; brothers, Charles Akers Jr., Crystal Spring, and Stanley Akers, Saratoga Springs, N.Y.; grandchildren: Ashley Myers, Hagerstown, Md.;

AKERS, JAMES C.

CEDAR GROVE

Nathan Malloy, Milwaukee, Wisc.; Milton Dorr, Martinsburg, W.Va.; Hannah, Abigail and Luke Barnes, and Benjamin Kirchner, all of Hagerstown; great-grandchildren: Damian and Ezekial Mongan, Dillinger Myers, Skylar and Trystan Malloy and numerous nieces and nephews, with Ron Akers and his wife, Carol, Greencastle, especially near and dear to his heart.

Services were held Friday, September 9, at 2 p.m., at Paramount Baptist Church, Hagerstown. Rev. Dr. Larry Rickard officiated. Interment was at 4:30 p.m., at Cedar Grove Cemetery, Warfordsburg.

Douglas A. Fiery Funeral Home, Hagerstown, was in charge of arrangements.

Memorial donations may be made to Paramount Baptist Church and Hospice of Washington County.