

Denton Abbey

Fayetteville, 91

Denton Abbey, 91, Fayetteville, died at 1:15 p.m. Monday, October 30, 2000 at the village of Laurel Run, Fayetteville.

Born in Hamlin, Wayne County, PA Wednesday, August 25, 1909, he was the son of the late Manton and Jane (Sausenheimer) Abbey. He retired as an X-ray and medical lab tech at the Urschel Clinic in Mentone, Ind.

He was the husband of Harriet (Knepper) Abbey whom he married May 26, 1942.

He attended Otterbein United Methodist Church, Fayetteville.

He was a member of Truth for Today Bible Fellowship, Lafayette, Ind. and did two years of graduate work at Franklin School of Science & Arts, Philadelphia.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Pamela J. Abbey, Concord, CA.

He was preceded in death by three brothers.

Funeral services were held at the Sipes Funeral Home, Inc., Harrisonville at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, November 4. Rev. Almon Baird officiated. Burial was made at Center United Methodist Cemetery at Three Springs.

Memorial donations may be made to the Fayetteville Fire Department, Fayetteville, PA 17222.

ABB EY, DENTON

CENTER