

Harriet B. Knepper Abbey

Concord, Calif., 81

Harriet Beatrice Knepper Abbey, 81, Concord, Calif., died Friday, August 23, 2002, in Concord.

Born November 25, 1920, in Pennsylvania, she was the daughter Charles and Florence (Shaver) Knepper.

She was a lab technician for 30 years and was last employed by Dr. Thomas Keough. She enjoyed crossword puzzles, sewing and knitting.

She was of the United Methodist faith.

Surviving are a daughter, Rev. Pamela Abbey-Pair, and husband, Kent, of Concord, Calif.; three sisters: Edyth Mosebey of Wells Tannery; Helen Pryor of Radnor, Pa., and Phyllis Lamont of Rosemont, Pa.

Services were held in Concord, Calif. Interment will take place in the Center United Methodist Cemetery in Waterfall.

Memorial contributions may be made to the local Alzheimer's Association.

The Lisa/Tradition Care Funeral Services were in charge of arrangements.

Abbey, Harriet B. Knepper

Center United Meth.