

ADAL ADAMS

Ada (Dolly) L. Adams, South Third Street, McConnellsburg, was dead on arrival at the Fulton County Medical Center Wednesday evening, December 17, 1975, from a heart attack.

She was born in Hollidaysburg, the daughter of the late William J. and Ada Mellott Greenawalt. She was employed by U-Wanna-Wash Frocks, Inc., Fort Loudon, and was a member of the National Geographic Society, Fulton County Historical Society, American Legion Auxiliary and the McConnellsburg Woman's Club.

She is survived by one son, Jon R. Adams, Manassas, Va.; two daughters, Mrs. Yvonne Preziosi, Nevada, and Miss Ada Jane Adams, Harrisburg; four brothers, Harold Greenawalt, California; William Greenawalt, Florida; and Donald and F. Roger Greenawalt, Maryland; six sisters, Mrs. Evie Hilling, Hollidaysburg; Mrs. Dorothy Mock, Illinois; Mrs. Nona Diggins, Philadelphia; Mrs. Connie Robertson, California; Mrs. Betty Cox, Texas; and Mrs. Marybell Caskey, Pittsburgh; and 10 grandchildren.

Services were held Saturday, December 20, at 1:00 P.M. at St. Stephen Catholic Church, McConnellsburg, with the Rev. Benedict Wolf officiating. Burial was in the Sideling Hill Christian Cemetery.

Adams, Ada L. (Dolly) Sideling Hill Christian Cemetery