

ADAMS, ANNA

SILVER

April 8, 1891 DIED

ADAMS.—In Licking Creek township, Fulton county, Pa., Anna, the invalid daughter of Mrs. Anolla Adams, aged 15 years, 6 months and 22 days.

For ten years past the deceased had been afflicted with spinal disease and was deprived of attending the means of grace, yet she had a grand religious experience. Among her last words was the expression that she saw heaven with all its glories and longed to go. Her body was laid to rest in Bloomer grave yard, on Thursday. Notwithstanding the terrible storm, a large number of people attended the funeral.
