

Lorraine L. Adams

Hancock, 79

Lorraine Lenore Adams, 79, Hancock, died Saturday, October 4, 2014, at her home.

Born May 2, 1935, in Needmore, she was the daughter of the late Bradie and Lenore O'Rourke Truax, and the widow of her first husband, Paul Schetrompf, who died in 1978.

She was of the Pentecostal faith.

She was retired from Londontown Manufacturing, where she had worked as a seamstress.

She enjoyed knitting, crocheting and computer games.

She is survived by her second husband, Bill Adams, whom she married March 17, 1989, in Hagerstown, Md.; two sons: Roger Schetrompf, of Great Cacapon, W.Va., and Paul Schetrompf, of Hancock; four daughters: Patty A. Schetrompf, Dee Keefer and husband, Boone; Tina McCusker and husband, Shelton, all of Hancock; and Laura Sue Lane and husband, David, of Smithsburg, Md.; four sisters: Estella Ruth Knepp and June E. Percy, both of Berkeley Springs, W.Va.; Vallie K. Schetrompf and Linda E. Ray and husband, Enos, all of Hancock; two brothers: Lyle F. Truax and wife, Linda, of Hyattsville, Md., and Gene

ADAMS, LORRAINE LENORE

PLEASANT GROVE CHRISTIAN

O. Truax, of Hancock; 12 grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren.

Besides her parents and first husband, she was also preceded in death by three brothers: Lloyd Bradie Truax, Virgil Wallace Truax, and Ray Matthew Truax; and one great-granddaughter, Angel Noelani Truax.

Services were held Wednesday, October 8, 2014, at 2 p.m., at Orchard Ridge First Church of God, Hancock, Md. Rev. Jeffrey Hawbaker officiated. Burial followed in Pleasant Grove Christian Cemetery, Warfordsburg.

Grove Funeral Home, Hancock, was in charge of arrangements.

Memorial donations, in her name, may be made to the charity of one's choice.