

Marjorie O. Akers

Crystal Spring, 90

Marjorie O. Akers, 90, formerly of Crystal Spring, died Wednesday, December 5, 2001, at Lee Regional Hospital, Johnstown.

She was born September 26, 1911, in East Providence Township, a daughter of the late Simon and Nettie (Whitfield) Conner.

On December 24, 1930, she married Irwin Akers. He preceded her in death on June 5, 1974.

She is survived by a daughter, Audrey A. Fischer, Crystal Spring; two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren; a brother, Roy Conner, Fort Worth, TX, and Everett and married to the former Gladys Calhoun; a sister, Mary Clingerman, Meadow View Nursing Home, Berlin.

She was preceded in death by two sisters: Lennice Ward and Flora Means and five brothers: Paul, John, Luther, Lewis and Walter and a granddaughter.

She was a member of the former Akersville United Methodist Church where she had served as a Sunday School teacher.

She received her education in the former Woodbush School and was a member of the former WSCS.

She and her husband actively engaged in farming in the Crystal Spring area for many years. She especially enjoyed gardening, raising flowers and working on geneology.

Funeral services were held Saturday, December 8, at 11:00 a.m. in the Akersville Community Church. Rev. Lowell Bard officiated. Burial was made in Akersville Cemetery.

Akers, Marjorie O.

Akersville