

Akers, West A.

1828

1900

age 72

On Friday, Sept. 28, 1900, the spirit of Mr. West Asa Akers quietly took its flight to that unseen world from which there is no returning. He had been a sufferer from typhoid fever and it was not expected that he would recover. He left an aged companion and six children, Charles Erastus, Frank, and Jennie, who are all married and live in the western states, and Hixon and Elliot, who are married and settled near Akersville. His remains were laid to rest in the Akersville cemetery on Sunday morning, services being conducted by Rev. Campbell, pastor of the Methodist church, of which faith Mr. Akers was a believer.

Mrs. Aker's maiden name was Nancy Hixson, a sister of Amos, Nathan B., Caleb, Mrs. Hanks, and Mrs. Jerry Jackson.

Akersville Methodist