idred A. Alexander news of the untimely of Mildred A. Alexander, (H. Scott Alexander, Sat-May 12, saddened the of her many friends and ntances in our community. Mrs. Alexander had not ell for the past year she wed active in her houseutes and her many church munity activities. She ed Sunday school and her last Sunday with us Monday morning suffererebral hemorrhage and away the following Sat-

Ullander, Aprilia a

Alexander was born Oct. 96, the daughter of Toblas r deceased and Ella Hege r and at death was aged rs, 6 months, and 28 days ril 24, 1919 she was maro H. Scott Alexander at er Mills and to this union ild Frances survives.

as been said of Mrs. Alexshe was one of McConurg's best loved citizens er cheerful and happy dis-on won her a host of s. She always looked on ight side of life and radi-hopeful and optomistic She was a member of the med church, joining first at was known as Hebron h in Ayr township and latmembership was transto McConnellsburg. She member of the Missionary y, the Mite Society, and Actony Ladies Bible class. many years she served as h organist. She seldom evesed a service of Sunday or church, having attend, consecutive years irteen ut missing. She was interin civic affairs as well as ual, counting no time lost could be used for the welof the community and its e Mrs. Alexander was a emember of the American ermember of the American Auxiliary and served two as president of the organn for which she was known e of the best officers the oration ever had. She was a er and past officer of the Woman's Club and a faithed Cross worker. She never the of the best days as in est, but was always hopeful he days ahead. She had a faith in the young people r day, a kind friend and bor. It will be a sacred ht in the years to come she shed radiance whereeve went and a blessed recola that she grew up to love be loved by those who will sh so tenderly her sweet pure memory.

S. alexander

00 8

တစ္ 00 2

07 5 03 9

mz

CD E

-0

-

0 :3

5 19 28 B

-

5

n i

-

5

-

5

57 S

5 5 5

-

00 7

-5 8

-5

30 5

-

3 -

57

-

-5 22

38

r death is a great loss to creaved husband, daughter other. The entire communprows at the passing of one e presence added dignity to urroundings, meral services were conducluesday afternoon from her. tome by her pastor, Rev. H. quear, assisted by Dr. F. D. ey. Interment in Union. tery. The many beautiful tributes bore silent testito the high esteem in seh was held by her many ds and associates. 1945.

-