

Bethel Church, New Grenada

Alloway, Malcolm R.

Malcolm R. Alloway

Malcolm Richard Alloway of Wells Tannery, RD, died at 11:30 A. M. on Saturday, November 9, 1957, at the Chambersburg Hospital.

The deceased was born on April 10, 1901, at Wood, a son of Richard L. and Ida (Gracey) Alloway. He was married to Alice Anderson on December 24, 1927, at Chambersburg.

He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Carol A. Lake, of Mechanicsburg, RD. Also surviving are the following sisters: Mrs. Lloyd (Gladys) Monn of Chambersburg, Mrs. Clifford (LaRue) Leabhart of Robertsdale, Mrs. Leonard (Alice) Leabhart of Fairless Hills and Mrs. John (Ila Queen) Kriger of Chambersburg.

Mr. Alloway was employed as an ciler of heavy equipment. He was a member of the LOOM of Huntingdon and of the Methodist Church of Waterfall.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday, November 12, at 2:30 P. M., at the Bethel Church at New Grenada, the Rev. Charles Hess of Three Springs officiating. Interment was made in the cemetery adjoining the church.

Husband of Alice