

Leta O. Amick

Leta O. Amick, 81, of Claysburg, the oldest living member of the Wells Tannery Presbyterian Church died at 3 A. M. Thursday, April 20, 1972, of an apparent heart attack.

With her husband, the late Sherman Amick of Maria, Mrs. Amick had operated a market in Claysburg for approximately 20 years, and a restaurant for a number of years afterward.

She was a collector of salt and pepper shakers, and had some 2,500 pairs from all parts of the world in her collection.

Born April 16, 1891, in Wells Tannery, Fulton County, she was a daughter of the late William and Alpha (Writz) Sprowl. She was married to Sherman Amick who died June 30, 1966.

Four children survive: Chester of Lanse, and Mrs. Geraldine Gordon, Mrs. Fleta Ebersole and Mrs. Helen Fowkes, all of Claysburg.

Also surviving are two brothers, Ernest Sprowl of Chambersburg and Ellis Sprowl of Wells Tannery, 13 grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on Sunday, April 23, at 2 P. M. from the Leslie Funeral Home, Claysburg, with the Rev. Ronald Davis officiating. Burial was in the Wells Valley Presbyterian Cemetery in Wells Tannery.

Amick, Leta O.

Wells Valley
Presbyterian