

WELLS VALLEY MAN

DIED OF HEART ATTACK

John Elmer Anderson, a resident of Wells Valley, dropped dead January 16, 1946 while at his work at the Harbison-Walker Refractories, Mount Union. There was no person with him at the time he was stricken, but his lifeless body was found at 10:45 A. M., shortly after he passed away. A physician in Mount Union pronounced that he had died of a heart attack. He ran a stone crusher at the brick plant and had reported for work at 7:00 A. M.

He was born in Huntingdon county on December 8, 1879, the son of Abram and Emma Rotz Anderson.

On June 10, 1901, at Hagerstown, Md., he was united in marriage to Orval Lockard who survives with the following sons and daughters:

Mrs. Russell Fix, Six Mile Run; Mrs. Chester Himes, Difiance; Mrs. Percy Winter, Defiance; S. K. 3/c John Anderson, United States Navy, stationed at Fort Pierce, Fla.; Robert Anderson, Hyndman; Mrs. Bruce Schenk, Wells Valley; Cpl. Doak Anderson, Germany.

Four brothers and two sisters also survive: Harry Anderson, Erie; Walter and Roy Anderson, both of Homestead; Gerdon Anderson, Geneva, O.; and Mrs. Joseph Redshaw and Mrs. Charles Redshaw, both of Homestead.

Mr. Anderson enjoyed a large acquaintance and was esteemed by all who knew him. He was a member of the Wells Valley Methodist church and a member of the Magdale Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Homestead, Pa.

Funeral services were held at the United Brethren church in Wells Valley on Saturday at 2:30 P. M., the Rev. Gerald Wilson officiating. Interment was made in the United Brethren cemetery at Wells Valley.
