

Lottie L. Anderson

Lottie L. Anderson, 85, a resident of The Shook Home for a year and formerly of St. Thomas, died Tuesday morning, October 4, 1994, in the home.

Born October 2, 1909, in Todd Township, Huntingdon County, she was a daughter of the late A. Theron and May Keith Griffith.

A member of St. Thomas Methodist Church, she was a former member of Wells Valley Grange.

She and her husband, W. Lee Anderson, farmed in Wells Valley, Fulton County. He died in 1980.

Surviving are five daughters; Alma (Mrs. Harold) Locke of St. Thomas; Leona (Mrs. Ronald) Brantner, Lewisberry; Grace (Mrs. Lyle) Mel-lott of Needmore; Flora (Mrs. Roy) Bonzo of Corning, NY and Betty (Mrs. Arthur) Hershey, Bedford; four sons: A. Ray, Three Springs; W. Guy, Needmore; Donald L., McCon-nellsburg and William E., Wells Tan-ner; 16 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Two brothers preceded her in death.

Services were held at 11:00 a.m. Friday, October 7 in Wells Valley Methodist Church. The Rev. Paul Crawford officiated. Burial was made in Wells Valley Methodist Cemetery.

The Kelso-Cornelius Funeral Home, Inc., St. Thomas, was in charge of arrangements.