

Norma G. Anderson

Martinsburg, Pa., 78

Norma Gale Grissinger Anderson, 78, a resident of Homewood at Martinsburg, Pa., and formerly of Waterfall, died Tuesday morning, January 29, 2008.

Born February 7, 1929, in Clay Township, Huntingdon County, she was the daughter of the late John R. and Rhoda (Black) Grissinger Trego. She was married to Ray Anderson on August 6, 1955, at Calvary Independent Baptist Church, Saltillo, by Rev. Richard H. Meyers. Her husband survives at their home in Waterfall.

She is survived by a daughter, Ruth Fenton and husband Edward and their children: Jessica and Adam, all of State College, along with a son, David Anderson, and wife Ellen and their children, Karina, who resides with her parents in Palmyra, Pa., and Beth of Lancaster; and a sister, Freda Rowles, Robertsdale.

She was preceded in death by a sister, Helen Ruth Grissinger, and a brother, Warren Grissinger.

She was a charter member of Calvary Independent Baptist Church, Saltillo, where she taught Sunday School and Bible School and was an active worker in the ladies missionary fellowship.

A 1947 graduate of Saltillo High School, she completed studies at Huntingdon Secretarial School and then went on to work at D.C. Goodman and Sons, Hardware, Mount Union. In later years, she was a homemaker.

She loved Bible study, attended numerous Christian conferences, travelled with her family, excelled in flower gardening, quilting and crocheting.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m., Friday, February 1, at Calvary Independent Baptist Church, Saltillo. Pastor Dan Long officiated.

Anderson, Norma Gale
Wells Valley Methodist

Funeral home made in Wells Valley