

William Pasco Anderson

William Pasco Anderson, 80, of Star Route 2, Harrisonville, died at the Fulton County Medical Center on Tuesday, December 12.

He was born in Six Mile Run, the son of the late William R. and Belle Horton Anderson Wishart. He was married to Mabel Laidig Anderson who died in June 1977. He was a Methodist. He was a painter, farmer, and retired from the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission. He was also a veteran of World War I, serving with the U.S. Army.

He is survived by one son, William R. Anderson of Harrisonville; three sisters: Mrs. Anna Thomas of Wood; Mrs. Alice Burgard of Dillsburg; and Mrs. Mary Bollinger of Wells Tannery; one half-sister, Mrs. Ruth Sellechner of Landsdale; three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Services were held Saturday, December 16, at 2:00 P.M. at the Fairview United Methodist Church near Harrisonville, with the Rev. Leonard Wright officiating, assisted by Rev. Monroe Shearer. Burial was made in the church cemetery.

Military rites were conducted by the Fulton Honor Guard.

Anderson, William P.

Fairview

WWI