

CEDAR GROVE
DOTT.

Bessie F. Apple

Bessie F. Apple, 70, of 11 West Baltimore Street, Hagerstown, Md., died Saturday, March 10, 1979, at the Western Maryland Hospital Center.

She was born in Sleepy Creek, W. Va, daughter of the late Charles and Alice Johnson Plotner. She was the widow of George R. Apple.

She was retired from the Washington County Hospital as an aide. She was a member of the Broadfording Church of the Brethren.

She is survived by three sons: Curtis A. Apple and Carl A. Apple, both of Warfordsburg; and George A. Apple of Maugansville, Md.; four sisters: Mrs. Marguerite Unger of Berkeley Springs, W. Va.; Mrs. Orpha Waugh of Hancock, W. Va.; Mrs. Marie Smith of Lyons, N.Y., and Mrs. Fern Absher of Pocatello, Idaho; two brothers, Sterling Plotner of Hagerstown, Md., and Paul E. Laign of Pleasanton, Calif.; six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Services were held on Tuesday,

March 13, at 2:00 P.M. at the Grove Funeral Home in Hancock with Rev. Paul Curvey officiating. Burial was in the Cedar Grove United Church of Christ Cemetery in Dott.

APPLE, BESSIE F.