

Nora E. Appleby

Chambersburg, 99

Nora Esther Appleby, 99, a resident of ManorCare Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, Chambersburg, Pa., and formerly of North Clear Ridge Road, Hustontown, Pa., died Friday morning, August 17, 2007, at ManorCare.

Born February 8, 1908, in Taylor Township, Fulton County, she was the daughter of the late Montgomery and Mary (Knepper) Clippinger. She was married to John E. Appleby on January 4, 1938. Mr. Appleby preceded in death on November 27, 1986.

Mrs. Appleby is survived by a daughter, Jane Mellott of McConnellsburg, and a son, Robert Appleby of Fort Loudon. Two sons, a daughter and a granddaughter are deceased.

There are 13 grandchildren, 24 great grandchildren and several great-great grandchildren.

One brother, Lester Clippinger, Columbia, N.C., and two sisters, Myrtle Knepper and Laura Wogan, both of Chambersburg, also survive.

She attended Clear Ridge United Methodist Church.

Primarily a homemaker, she enjoyed assisting with the social activities at the Clear Ridge Community Building.

Graveside services will be held at 1:00 p.m. Monday, August 20, 2007, at Clear Ridge Cemetery, North Clear Ridge Road, Hustontown, PA with Pastor Mike Baumgardner officiating. Arrangements are by the M. R., Brown Funeral Home, Hustontown.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Rhonda Brake Shreiner Women's Center, 757 Norland Ave., Suite 103, Summit Health Center, Chambersburg, PA 17201.

Appleby, Nora E.

Clear Ridge