

Margaret E. Atherton

Margaret Etta Rhodes Atherton, 70, a resident of Franklin County Nursing Home and formerly of St. Thomas, died at 9:20 p.m. Wednesday, July 13, 1994, at the nursing home.

Born June 14, 1924, in Fulton County, she was a daughter of the late Florence Rhodes Carbaugh and adoptive daughter of the late John E. and Alice Rhodes.

Her husband, Enos Edward Atherton, whom she married August 23, 1943, died in 1956.

Surviving are a daughter, Julia R. (Mrs. James L.) Walls, of St. Thomas; three sons: Harry Lee of Waynesboro and twins, Donald of Chambersburg and Ronald of Greencastle; seven grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; seven brothers: Alvey Carbaugh, Greencastle, Herman, Edgar and George Carbaugh and Wilson Rhodes, all of McConnellsburg; Lloyd Rhodes of Fort Loudon and Silas Rhodes of Hancock and six sisters: Virginia Gordon and Zelda Wible, both of Dayton, TX; Irene Coons of Shippensburg; Mollie Smith, Big Cove Tannery; Lena Lynch, McConnellsburg and Evangeline Rasp, St. Thomas.

Services were held at 10:00 a.m. Monday, July 18 at the Robert G. Sellers Funeral Home, Inc. The Rev. Howard L. Beaver officiated. Burial was made in Union Cemetery, McConnellsburg.