

Betty Barnhart

Hancock, 93

Betty (Cunningham) Barnhart, 93, Hancock, Md., died Thursday, January 12, 2017, at the Village of Robinwood Assisted Living facility, in Hagerstown, Md.

Born August 7, 1923, in Hagerstown, Md., she was the daughter of the late Fred and Esta (Hart) Cunningham; and the widow of her husband, Henry Herman Barnhart, whom she married on May 11, 1946, and who died on February 25, 1999.

She was a 1941 graduate of Hagerstown High School, and graduated from the Washington County Hospital School of Nursing in 1944. She worked as a registered nurse at the War Memorial Hospital, in Berkeley Springs, W.Va.

She attended Trinity Lutheran Church, in Hagerstown, and previously attended St. Thomas Episcopal Church, in Hancock, with her husband before his death.

She was a member of the Hancock Democrats; Hancock Homemakers; and Hancock chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority.

She is survived by her two daughters: Melinda Golden, Hancock, and Stephanie B. Foy and husband Kevin, Baltimore, Md.; grandchildren: Bernie Golden and wife Nicole, Hancock; Sara Golden, Goshen, Ind.; Katie Wallace and husband Allan, Kensington, Md., and Meghan Martin and husband Paul, Alexandria, Va.;

BARNHART, BETTY

TONOLOWAY

two great-grandchildren: Deanna and Mason Golden, Hancock; and several nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by her twin brother, William H. Cunningham; and a sister, Sara L. Lechliden.

Funeral services were held Monday, January 16, at 10 a.m., at St. Thomas Episcopal Church, Hancock. Fr. Brian Shoda and Rev. F. Allan Weatherholt Jr. officiated. Burial was at Tonoloway Cemetery.