

Catherine Bain

Mrs. Catherine Bain, 86, widely known resident of the Webster Mills area died on December 20, 1960 at her home in Mercersburg, where she had resided the past eight months. Mrs. Bain's health began to fail her a number of years ago, and up until eight months ago she made her home among her children who had cared for her with constant vigilance and unto the end. The passing of this dear mother and kind friend saddened the hearts of all.

The deceased was born a daughter to the late John, and Martha Gordon Harris in upper Avy township on March 22, 1874. She was married to John Bain who preceeded her in death in late January of 1941. She was an active member of the Big Cove Tannery Lutheran church and attended as regularly as her health would permit.

Left to mourn her loss are these children: John Bain of Webster Mills, Kenneth Bain of Pine Grove, Pa., Harry Bain of Big Cove Tannery. Mrs. Beulah Glaser of Mercersburg, Mrs. Nina Bivens, Big Cove Tannery, and Mrs. Alma Strait of Harrisonville, and these step children, Ira Bain of Webster Mills. Guy Bain, of Florida and Mrs. Alice Rippeon of Frederick, Md. Also there is one brother surviving, Hon. Lewis Harris of McConnellsburg and also 14 grand children and 21 great
