

Ira W. Bain

Ira W. Bain, 89, Star Route South, McConnellsburg, retired employee of Letterkenny Army Depot, died Thursday, June 21, 1979, of a heart attack in the Fulton County Medical Center.

He was born in Hancock, Md., son of the late John W. and Elizabeth Hall Bain. He retired from Letterkenny in 1959 and is a veteran of World War I.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Eureka Strait Bain; seven children: Ira B. Bain, Mercersburg; Mrs. Edna Demint, Jamesville, Md.; Mrs. Helen Hann and George W. Bain, Big Cove Tannery; Mrs. Nancy Hoffman, East Leroy, Mich.; Mrs. Joann Englert and Mrs. Sara Kaye Neely, McConnellsburg; 26 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Also surviving are a brother, Luther G. Bain, Big Cove Tannery; a sister, Alice Rippon, Frederick, Md.; three half-brothers: Kenneth Bain, Harrisburg; Alfred Bain, Pine Grove; Harry Bain, Big Cove Tannery; three half-sisters, Beulah Glaser, Mercersburg; Nina Bain Bivens, Big Cove Tannery, and Elma Strait, Harrisonville.

Services were held Monday, June 25, at 2:00 P.M. in the John J. Kelso Funeral Home with the Rev. Leonard Wright officiating. Burial was in Union Cemetery.