

Amanda G. Barber 1998

Amanda G. Barber, 68, Roaring Spring, formerly of Six Mile Run, died at 6:07 a.m. Sunday, July 17, 1998 at the Nason Hospital, Roaring Spring, following an extended illness. She was born July 6, 1920 at Six Mile Run, the daughter of Cambridge Mabel (Everhart) O'Neal. She was united in marriage to Melvin C. Barber January 31, 1936 at Six Mile Run. He preceded her in death October 14, 1975. Oct. WHITE
 Three children survive: Carol J. Barber, Six Mile Run; HANVELLS Cheryl Barber, Roaring Spring; Melvin L. Barber, Wells Tannery. There are BARBER four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Three brothers and sisters also survive: Helen Blair, Six Mile Run; Ellen O'Neal, Saxton; SWORTH FRATIER Genevieve O'Neal, Dorcas Platt and Bob O'Neal, Ohio and Hazel Thomas, ARIZONA Arizona.

Amanda Barber was a member of the Six Mile Run Church of God. She was a member of the Hopewell Area Citizens and was primarily a homemaker throughout her life.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday, July 19 at the Masood Chapel in Saxton. The Rev. Roy Bakner officiated. Burial was in the Duvall Cemetery, Six Mile Run.