

George Barber

George Thomas Barber, born on Feb. 6, 1892 passed away on Sept. 23, 1952, just after being admitted to the Pines hospital at Berkeley Springs, W. Va.

He was the son of the late Amos and Mary Smith Barber and was united in marriage to Miss Ethel Purnell, who with their two sons Frederick and George Fay survive him as does a brother,

Francis Barber.

George was an industrious farmer, living all his life in the community near Sideling Hill mountain, his home being the Amos Palmer farm, where they have built up to date farm buildings.

He was a member of the Needmore M. E. church and was serving as trustee. He also was trustee in the Pleasant Grove cemetery association and a member of the laymens fellowship and the adult Sunday school class of Pleasant Grove. He was a member of the Needmore Grange and a friend to many people, and will be missed by his family and friends.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. T. P. Garland assisted by Rev. Reginald Alford and Needmore Grange, also the choir from both the Needmore and the Pleasant Grove churches. The family has the sympathy of the community and their friends.
