

Almon T. Bard

Almon Travis Bard, 62, 1024 Warm Spring Road, Chambersburg, a Franklin County Department of Transportation employee for the past 10 years, died at 3:10 P.M. Saturday, February 6, 1982, in Washington County Hospital, Hagerstown, Md., where he was a patient for five weeks.

Born in Sipes Mill October 29, 1919, he was the son of the late Sherman and Goldie Pittman Bard.

Mr. Bard was a member of Pleasant Ridge Church of the Nazarene, Harrisonville.

Surviving are his wife, Goldie Mel-lott Bard; a son, Dallas Bard, Chambersburg; two daughters, Delores (Mrs. Keith) Eyer, Chambersburg, and Wavallene Bard, Chambersburg; two brothers, Durkee Bard, McConnellsburg, and Elston Bard, Geneva, Fla.; four sisters: Janet Swope and Edna Allison, both of Hope Sound, Fla., Margaret Swope of Needmore, and Faye Bard, Point Pleasant, W.Va.; and four grandsons. A sister preceded him in death.

The funeral was held Tuesday, February 9, in Pleasant Ridge Church of the Nazarene, with the Rev. Emerson Walker and Rev. Willis Swope officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Arrangements were handled by the Howard L. Sipes Funeral Home, Harrisonville.