

Green Hill Methodist

Bard, Cora Alice

CORA ALICE BARD

Mrs. Cora Alice Bard, 69, widow of the late C. Albert Bard died at her home in Licking Creek township on Wednesday, March 31, 1943 following a lingering illness.

The deceased was a daughter of the late Jobe and Margaret (Decker) Hess and was born at Warfordsburg, this county, on May 30, 1874. Her husband, the late C. Albert Bard, preceded her in death in December, 1926.

For a number of years the Bards resided at Emmaville in Brush Creek township where they were engaged in farming. Later years they made their home on the Daniels farm near Harrisonville.

Surviving are three children: Mrs. Ross Barton of Crystal Springs, Walter Bard at home and Mrs. Norman Gress of McConnellsburg. RD. Brothers and sisters surviving are: George Hess of Butler, Ohio, Jobe Hess of Miffin, Ohio, Mrs. Maggie Jackson of Hancock, Md., Mrs. Carrie Dunaboe of Butler, Ohio and Mr. Louis Lake of Everett, Pa.

The deceased was a member of the Methodist church. She enjoyed a host of friends who will mourn her departure.

Funeral services were held on Sunday at one o'clock at the Green Hill Methodist church with Rev. Thomas Bambling officiating. Burial in the adjoining cemetery.

ASBURY ?