

Earl T. Bard

Earl T. Bard, 85, North First Street, McConnellsburg, died Saturday morning, February 11, 1978, in Fulton County Medical Center.

Mr. Bard was born September 22, 1892, in Fulton County, son of the late Charles and Catherine Smith Bard. He was a member of United Methodist Church of McConnellsburg, and for more than 40 years was employed by the American Bridge Company of Ambridge, retiring in 1958. He was a member of the IOOF of Ambridge.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Blanche L. Sharpe Bard; three sisters and a brother: Mrs. Cleo Garland, Chambersburg; Mrs. Lessie Garland, Mrs. Ruby Kerlin and George P. Bard, all of McConnellsburg.

The funeral was held at 2:00 P.M. on Monday, February 13, in the John J. Kelso Funeral Home in charge of the Rev. David Cheslock. Burial was in Union Cemetery.

Bard, Earl T.

Union