

Lynn S. Bard

Lynn S. Bard, 79, McConnellsburg, died early Sunday, November 5, 1995 at home.

Born August 10, 1916 in Todd Township, Fulton County, he was a son of the late Newton and Tina Strait Bard.

He was a member of St. Paul United Church of Christ, McConnellsburg and was a 1934 graduate of McConnellsburg High School.

In 1969, he retired from the U.S. Army after 23 years as a military policeman. He served in Panama, Germany, Korea and Vietnam.

A former police chief in McConnellsburg, he also was a former game warden in Pennsylvania.

He was a member of McConnellsburg American Legion, where he was past post commander and past president of the board of directors of American Legion; a past district commander of the statewide American Legion; and a member of Fraternal Order of Police; Franklin County Veterans Association; Fraternal Order of Eagles, Waynesboro; Mercersburg Veterans of Foreign Wars; American Association of Retired Persons and National Rifle Association.

Surviving are his wife of 43 years, Mary Knauff Bard, whom he married in 1952; a daughter, Carole Ann (Mrs. Lester) Helman, Chambersburg; a son, Paul N., Clarion; four grandsons; one granddaughter; two step-granddaughters; two brothers: Orville T. and Orlen H., both of McConnellsburg and nieces and nephews.

A sister and a brother preceded him in death.

Services were held at 11:00 a.m. Wednesday, November 8 at the St. Paul United Church of Christ, McConnellsburg. The Rev. Barron Barley officiated. Burial was made in Union Cemetery, where Fulton Honor Guard conducted a graveside service.