00

00

00

m

00

00

00

00

co

co

200

00 20

00

co

00

00

00 00

00

50

00

00

60

00

00

co

00

00

00

00

00

ca

00

co

00

60

00

00

00

00

00

60

ca

00

00

03

00

00

00

00

00 00

00

00

00

00 00

ca

00

co 60

50

00

00

co ca

00

co

00

00 en 00

60

co

00

00

00

co

00

0 3

00 12

CO 10

mE

C72 123

02 10

0 2

co C

OR

OF

00

07 3

CD 60

00 10

0 2

00 13

00 2 00 8

00 2

00 15

00 8

00 3

00 00

00 17

00 18

00 33

00 %

00 2

00 3

07 5

00 8

00 00

07 2

00 0

cn 19

00 12

07 3

00 0

00 3

co S

00 9

00 8

OP

00 =

CD 18

ON

00 %

07 27 00 8

OF

000 00 8

00 13

00 5

00 19

0 10

5 7

20 2

00 2

ONE 00 8

00 0

on !!!

000

CD 12

co so

02 2

00 12

00 2

on =

9 9 9 50 10

CD 00 1

D P

C7 40 cn o

CD 4

07 17

07 11

on -

Michael E. H. Bard, one of e county's most respected resints, died at the Bard home ace near Pleasant Ridge onday morning, April 29, from ippe and the infirmities of adnced age, having been in imired health all winter. Mr. Bard was born at Need-ore on July 21, 1844, being red 84 years, nine months and His parents were ght days. harles Bard, who was born in ermany and Susan (Lehman) ard of Pennsylvania German Michael was the oldest escent. six children, four boys and wo girls, who have all preceded He was united in im in death. harriage December 25, 1867, ith Margaret Truax near Needore, his wife passing over beore him. They were the parnts of thirteen children, eleven as follows: survive whom harles and Henry Bard and Irs. Anna Kelso of Knobsville: leorge A. of Pittsburgh; John f Rochester; Ross of near Merersburg; Newton J. of McCon-Sherman, Martha, ellsburg; ife of Frank Spade and Jessie, ife of Levi Mellott, of near lipes Mill, Oliver on the home Two sons are deceased, Bert and Will. He also has 53 great and 34randchildren randchildren living.

Mr. Bard followed farming all is life, and was an outstanding nan in his community. He was devoted christian, and an acive member of Ebenezer M. E. hurch for more than 60 years.

Funeral services were held at Ebenezer church on Wednesday fternoon, at 2 o'clock, the Rev. E. J. Croft of Fort Loudon, ofciating. Interment was made in the church cemetery. 3

4

S CD