Mrs. Phoebe Bard.

Phoebe, wife of Mr. John Bard of Belfast township, died at 4 o'clock last Sunday morning, aged about 54 years.

Mrs. Bard's health had been failing for several months, but it was not until last Monday a week that she became confined to her bed from a violent attack of pneumonia which her waning vitality was not able to withstand, and death came as before stated.

Mrs. Bard was a daughter of the late Theodore Mellott, who many years ago was a prominent citizen of Belfast township.

She is survived by one full brother and sister, Rev. Absalom Mellott of Belfast and Mrs. Rebecca Lake of North Dakota; also by her husband and the following named children: Lou (Mrs. James McInay of Bedford county), Stella, a student at the Mountain State Business College, at Parkersburg, W. Va.; Laura, Ida, Erastus, Virgil, and Webster.

Mrs. Bard was a woman of strong intellect, and well beloved by all who knew her.

Funeral this morning at 10 o'clock. Interment at the cemetery at the Dunkard church on Pleasant Ridge, of which she was a faithful member.
