

Clarence E. Barnett, Sr.

Clarence E. Barnett, Sr., 84, Hustontown, died at 3:55 a.m. Wednesday, February 26, 1992 in the Fulton County Medical Center.

Born July 23, 1907 at Waterfall, he was a son of the late Joseph and Margaret Cutchall Barnett and a step-son of the late Ida Shaw Barnett.

He worked as a rural mail carrier for 44 years in the Hustontown and Three Springs areas.

He and his wife, Iva Mae Strait Barnett, were married March 9, 1926.

Surviving, in addition to his wife, are the following children: Madelene Ulsh, Three Springs; Genevieve Cutchall of Danville; Gayle Harris, Glenn and Harty, all of McConnellsburg; Gerald of Marietta; Clair of Dudley; Clarence, Jr. and Karl, both of Hustontown and Gary of Three Springs; 50 grandchildren; 70 great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren and two sisters: Althea Hoffman of Three Springs and Ruth Hoffman of Hustontown.

A daughter, sister, five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren preceded him in death.

Services were held at 2:00 p.m. Saturday, February 29 at the M.R. Brown Funeral Home. The Rev. Richard Vandervort officiated. Burial was made in Fairview Cemetery, near Hustontown.