

Barnett

Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Barnett, widow of the late Z. B. Barnett, a former County Commissioner of Fulton county, died at the home of her son, Walter S. Barnett, at Three Springs, Pa., Sunday, April 14, 1929, after an illness of about seven weeks.

Mrs Barnett was a daughter of Evan P. and Susan (Woodcock) Huston, and was born one mile north of Hustontown, August 13th, 1852, being aged 76 years, eight months and one day. She was united in marriage to Zane Bland Barnett, February 15th, 1876, who preceded her to the Great Beyond a number of years ago. She is survived by the following children: Bertie, wife of George Heefner, of Hiram; Mary, wife of W. A. McNeal, of Johnstown; George N. Barnett, on the home place near Waterfall, and Walter S. Barnett of Three Springs, Pa. She is also survived by two half-sisters, Mrs. Bert Brown of Pittsburgh, Mrs. John Sollers of Coalmont, Pa., and eight grand children. Mrs. Barnett was the last of her father's family by his first wife.

Mrs. Barnett lived for 49 years on the home place where all her children were born, near Waterfall. In early life she united with the Methodist Episcopal church at Hustontown, later transferring her membership to the Center M. E. church, where she retained her membership until death called her. She came of Christian parentage and was reared in a
