

MRS. HOWARD BARNETT

Mrs. Howard Barnett passed away suddenly at her home near Waterfall, Sunday afternoon, January 9, 1938, at 4 o'clock. One Sunday morning, Mrs. Barnett had attended Sunday school and the church services, and upon her return home became ill and died soon after. The death of her daughter, Mrs. Marshall (Ollie) McClain is believed to have hastened the death of Mrs. Barnett. She had been grief stricken ever since her daughter's death.

Mrs. Barnett was a faithful and devout member of the Center Methodist Episcopal church. She was a fine Christian woman, a good wife, mother and friend, and her passing will be felt keenly in the church, home and community.

Surviving with her husband, Howard Barnett and aged father, David Knepper, Sr., are the following children: Mrs. Jesse (Verna) McClain, of near Waterfall; Mrs. Homer (Beulah) Stevens, of Canton, Ohio; Mrs. Lewis (Leah) Everts, of near Hancock, Md.; Seibert Barnett and Violet Barnett, both at home. These brothers and sisters: William Knepper, Charles Knepper, Jerre Knepper and Fred Knepper and Mrs. Flossie Shaw, all of near Center; Mrs. Emory McClain, of Three Springs, and eight grandchildren; also survive.

Funeral services were held at the Center M. E. Church Wednesday afternoon, January 12, 1938. Interment was made in the cemetery near
