

ROBERT VAUGHN BARNETT

The relatives and friends were shocked on Saturday evening, March 31, 1934 to hear of the death of Robert Vaughn Barnett, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Barnett of Hustontown, Pa., He was sick for three weeks with pneumonia. At the time of his death, he was aged 11 months, and 14 days. He is survived by his father, mother and one sister Lois. He was the little grandson of Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Strait of Harrisonville and Mr. and Mrs. James Barnett of Waterfall. He is also survived by his great grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Hann of Needmore and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Little Robert was a member of the Baby's Cradle Roll of Hustontown. Little Robert had a smile for every one. He was well loved by all who knew him, although his time was short here on earth, he was a little bud to bloom in Heaven. His little pallbearers were: Kenneth Barnett, Brinton McClain, Robert House, Jr. and Arthur Strait of Harrisonville, the two flower girls were Mary Reeder and Alice Strait. Short services were held at his home, the little body then being taken to Center M. E. Church for further services. Rev. Joseph Wagner of the Harrisonville church officiating. His remains were laid to rest in the Center cemetery. Robert House, mortician.
