

D. Bud Barnhart

McConnellsburg, 71

D. Bud (Teaberry) Barnhart, 71, McConnellsburg, died at 5:20 a.m. Wednesday, October 1, 1997 at the Fulton County Medical Center.

Born March 13, 1926 in Andover, PA, he was the son of the late Lewis Barnhart and the late E. Pearl Fagley Barnhart.

He was of the Protestant faith.

He was a member of the Licking Creek Fisherman's Association.

He was a laborer.

Surviving are two sisters: Mary Lowans, Greencastle; Goldie Strait, Sycamore, OH; a brother, Earl Barnhart, Harrisonville; two step-sisters: May Oberholtzer, Maryland; Ricky Bain, Big Cove Tannery and a number of nieces, nephews, step-nieces and step-nephews.

He was preceded in death by two step-sisters and three step-brothers.

Funeral services were held at the Siloam United Methodist Church, Harrisonville, at 11:00 a.m. Saturday, October 4. Rev. Charles Gummo and Rev. Donald Bard officiated.

The Howard L. Sipes Funeral Home, Inc., Harrisonville, was in charge of arrangements.

BARNHART, D. BUD

SILOAM(?)

