

Frederick S. Barnhart

Hagerstown, 51

Frederick Sensel Barnhart, 51, Hagerstown, MD, died Sunday, March 19, 2000 at his home.

Born April 24, 1948 in Berkeley Springs, WV, he was the son of the late John Frederick and Ruth Margaret Young Barnhart.

He was a member of St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Hancock. He attended Berkeley Springs High School. He worked with Eastern Products until the plant closed and had most recently worked at the Dual Highway Car Wash, both in Hagerstown.

Surviving are a brother, Douglas R. Barnhart, Williamsport, MD; one sister, Barbara K. Barnhart, Hagerstown and two aunts: Julia B. Lynn and Mary G. Barnhart, both of Hancock.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by two uncles: Robert J. Barnhart, Sr. and Henry H. Barnhart.

Graveside funeral services were held at 1:00 p.m. Thursday, March 23 at Tonoloway Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery, Fulton County. Rev. F. Allan Weatherholt, Jr. officiated.

The Helsley-Johnson Funeral Home, Berkeley Springs, was in charge of arrangements.

Barnhart, Frederick Sensel

Tonoloway