

Gwendolyn G. Barnhart

McConnellsburg, 79

Gwendolyn G. Barnhart, 79, a resident of the Fulton County Medical Center Extended Care Facility and formerly of Warfordsburg, died Thursday, January 7, 1999 at the Extended Care Facility.

Born June 19, 1920 in Mercersburg, she was the daughter of the late Edward and Goldie Goodman Hann and the widow of James E. Barnhart who died September 16, 1972.

She had been a seamstress with the former Sagner's, Inc., McConnellsburg and Jacob Brothers in Hancock and later a homemaker. She was a member of May's Chapel Christian Church in Warfordsburg.

Surviving are two daughters: Norma L. Moats, Hancock and Patricia A. Dodson, Jacksonville, NC; three sons: James R. Barnhart and Eric R. Barnhart, both of Warfordsburg and Hobert Q. Barnhart of Little Orleans, MD; one sister, Betty Gesswein of Kailua, Hawaii; thirteen grandchildren, twenty-two great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

Besides her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by a daughter, Donna Barnhart; two sons: Roger A. Barnhart and Robert Barnhart; two brothers: Edmond Hann and Hobert Hann.

Services were held Monday, January 11 at 11:00 a.m. at the Grove Funeral Home, Hancock. Rev. Delmas Bard officiated. Burial was made in May's Chapel Christian Cemetery, Warfordsburg.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Fulton County Medical Center, Extended Care Facility, 261 South First Street, McConnellsburg, PA 17233.

Barnhart, Gwendolyn G. Hann

Mays Chapel