

Henry H. Barnhart*Hancock, 78*

Henry H. Barnhart, 78, Hancock, died Thursday, February 25, 1999 at his home.

Born August 16, 1920 in Fulton County, he was the son of the late Ross and Madeline Sensel Barnhart.

He was a farmer. He retired from the U.S. Postal Service in Hancock as a carrier after twenty years.

A veteran of World War II, he served in the U.S. Army Air Force.

He was a member of and served on the vestry of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church in Hancock.

He was a life member of Webster B. Harrison Post 26 American Legion, Hancock; a former member of Hancock Grange and Washington County Farm Bureau.

He is survived by his wife, Betty Cunningham, Barnhart of Hancock, whom he married May 11, 1946; two daughters: Melinda B. Golden, Hancock and Stephanie B. Foy, Baltimore; two sisters: Julia B. Lynn and Mary G. Barnhart, Hancock and four grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a sister, Alberta Barnhart and two brothers: John Barnhart and Robert Barnhart, Sr.

Services were held Saturday, February 27 at 2:00 p.m. at the St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Hancock. Rev. F. Allan Weatherhold, Jr. officiated. Burial was made in Tonoloway Primitive Baptist Cemetery in Hancock.

Memorial donations may be made to St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, 2 East High St., Hancock, MD, 21750.

Arrangements were under the direction of the Grove Funeral Home in Hancock.