Barnhart, Mary Etta

Mary Etta Barnhart

The community in which she lived was greatly shocked when Mary Etta Barnhart, wife of Ira Barnhart, passed away at the Chambersburg hospital on Monday, June 23, 1947, at 9:30 A. M., after being hospitalized for three days. Mrs. Barnhart was a faithful church worker and was greatly respected in her community for her neighborliness and friendliness.

She was a daughter of Nathaniel Hart Evans and Dolla Morgret Evans and was born in Thompson township on May 3, 1877. Both parents are deceased. After her marriage to Mr. Barnhart, the couple continued to reside in Thompson township.

Besides her husband, one brother, George B. Evans, of Big Cove Tannery, is the only survivor.

Mrs. Barnhart was a faithful member of the Tonoloway Baptist church.

Funeral services will be held from the Tonoloway church today (Thursday) at 1:00 P. M., with the Elder Thomas Alderton officiating. Interment will be made in Tonoloway cemetery.
