

Sadie G. Barnhart

Sadie (Graham) Barnhart wife of William Barnhart, Black Oak, Fulton county, Pa., near Hancock, died suddenly from a heart attack on Tuesday evening, Dec. 14th, at her home, aged 58 years.

She was born in Davis, W. Va., a daughter of John and Josephine Bishop Graham.

Besides her husband she is survived by daughters, Mrs. Ethel Bowers, Clear Spring; Mrs. Vada Cabbage, Miss Rosalie Barnhart and Mrs. Daisy Powers all of Hancock, Mrs. Mary Mellott, Needmore; sons, William and Herbert, at home, and Harry, Ft. Knox, Ky., sisters Mrs. Goldie Suter, of Clear Spring, Mrs. Ruth Bishop, of Hagerstown, and Alvey Graham, of Hancock.

Funeral services were held at the Black Oak Mennonite church, Black Oak, Pa., Saturday at 2 p. m. with Rev. Michael Horst officiating. Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.

BARNHART, SADIE GRAHAM

Black Oak

Sadie Barnhart