

Oakley
Methodist

Barnhart, Ward B.

Ward B. Barnhart

Funeral services were held on Sunday, November 8, 1959, from the Oakley Methodist Church, Needmore, for Ward B. Barnhart, 70, who died unexpectedly of a heart attack on Thursday morning at his home in Needmore.

The Rev. Coy Foor officiated and interment was made in the cemetery adjoining the church.

Mr. Barnhart was born on May 4, 1889, at Needmore, a son of the late Palmer and Fannie Bailey Barnhart. He was a farmer. In 1937, he was married to Anna Sigel.

Surviving are three daughters: Mrs. Zelda Keefer, Pennsville, N. J.; Miss Faye Barnhart, New Castle, and Mrs. Martha Hoover, Fayetteville; a step-daughter, Mrs. Beulah Souders, Niles, Ohio; 13 grandchildren; four great grandchildren; a brother, Alonzo, of Needmore, and a sister, Mrs. Martha Layton, Warfordsburg.