

John J. Barthalow

John J. Barthalow, 74, Greencastle, died Monday, June 11, 1984, at the Fulton County Medical Center in McConnellsburg.

Born in Fulton County, he was the son of the late Charles Sheridan and Dora Aldo Bishop Barthalow Rotz.

His first wife, Stella Margaret Clark Barthalow, preceded him in death in 1947.

His second wife, LaRue Stevens Barthalow, preceded him in death in 1972.

He was employed with the Forbes Road School District as custodian and previously at Letterkenny Army Depot.

He attended Upton Full Gospel Church.

He is survived by five daughters, Josephine Seville of McConnellsburg, Louise Carbaugh of Big Cove Tannery, Helen Barnhart and Anna Pearl Schooley, both of Harrisonville and Delores Woy of Orbisonia; eight sons, Wilson Barthalow of Chambersburg, John Barthalow of Lebanon, Audie Barthalow and Frank Barthalow, both of McConnellsburg, Henry Barthalow of Greencastle and Melvin Barthalow of Mercersburg and Roy Barthalow and Nathan Barthalow, both of Hagerstown; five sisters, Mary Werdebaugh of Oakland, Md., Bessie Gordon of Hancock, Md., Bertha Cooper of Greencastle, Ruth Evert of Needmore and Edith Clark of Galeton; three brothers, Harry Barthalow of Mercersburg, Luther Barthalow of Lebanon and Howard Barthalow of Kissimmee, Fla.; 35 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

Services were held at 10:30 A.M. Thursday, June 14, at the Antioch Christian Church. The Rev. Pearl Fowler and the Rev. Gary Keefer officiated. Burial was made in Antioch Church Cemetery.

The Kelso Funeral Home in McConnellsburg was in charge of arrangements.