

EVA CHRISTINA BARTON

Death claimed little Eva Christina Barton, July 8, 1947 in the Everett Hospital. Eva was born to Walter J. and Amy L. Barton of Crystal Spring on January 3, 1944.

On Friday, July 4th, she accidentally fell into a pail of hot water, scalding herself, which caused her death.

One sister, Melvina (one year old) besides her parents survive at home. And infant brother is deceased.

Her grand mothers, Mrs. Lula Barton and Mrs. Harry Helsel also survive. Miss Grave Barton, her aunt, who was with her at the time of the accident is heart broken. Two uncles George Barton and Roy Barton, and the following half uncles and aunts, George Helsel, Elda Helsel, Harry David Helsel, Vesta Helson, Alice and Leila Helsel and a host of admiring relatives and friends mourn her passing away so early in life. She was a very bright and lovable child.

Funeral services were conducted at Akersville church, Friday morning by pastor Rev. Eugene Heil.

Oh how hard we tried to save her,
Prayers and tears were all in vain;
Angels came and took her
From this world of toil and pain.
She is gone but was so young and fair,
She slumbers but knows no care;
Her heart was true, her life was young,
Yet not our will but God's be done.

BARTON,
EVA C.
