

George C. Barton Jpe

George Calvin Barton died of a heart attack at the Fulton County Medical Center on Saturday, April 11, 1964.

A son of George N. Barton and Lula C. Schenck Barton, he was born in Brush Creek township on December 15, 1924. He was united in marriage with Esta Marie Everts, and the couple resided in Thompson township where he was employed as a truck driver.

Besides his wife and mother, he is survived by the following children: Nelson Glen, George Calvin, Jr., James Elwood, Timothy Randall, Mary Christena and Shirley Marie Barton, all at home. Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Amy Barton of Crystal Spring and Miss Grace Barton of Hancock, RD.

BARTON, GEORGE CALVIN