Roy J. Bohn

Graveside services were held at the McConnellsburg Union cemetery on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for the late Roy J. Bohn, 48, native of McConnellsburg and resident of Glassport, Pa., who died on Thursday, January 22, 1959. Funeral services were held in Glassport prior to the graveside services at Union cemetery.

Mr. Bohn was the son of the late Roy J. and Minnie Fields Bohn. He is survived by his wife and one daughter Helen and two adopted children. A sister, Mrs. Carol Jane Middaugh of Norwalk, Ohio also survives.

The late Roy Bohn will be remembered by many in the community as having worked for a number of years at the Hays store in McConnellsburg.

BOHN—LYNCH

At four o'clock Saturday afternoon, November 16th, Mr. Roy J. Bohn and Miss Ruth R. Lynch were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. L. Jarrett, a former pastor of the groom in the M. E. Parsonage in Millerstown, Pa. The beautiful ring ceremony of the Methodist Episcopal church was used and was witnessed by Mrs. H. L. Jarrett and daughter May.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. Bohn of McConnellsburg and is well known as the efficient and amiable young man who for a number of years has clerked in the G. W. Hays store. The bride is a daughter of George O. Lynch and his wife, deceased. Mr. Lynch is postmaster in Crystal Springs. Mrs. Bohn is one of Fulton counties successful school teachers and at present is teaching the Akersville school.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bohn journeyed to Harrisburg where a fine wedding dinner awaited them in the home of the bride's niece, daughter of Mr. Marshall Lynch of Crystal Springs.

The bride and groom will be at home to their friends in the newly furnished apartment in connection with the filling station of Marshall Lynch which has been rented by Mr. Bohn for operation. We extend our heartiest congratulations.
