

Ruth M. Bolinger

McConnellsburg, 90

Ruth M. Bolinger, 90, formerly of McConnellsburg, passed away Tuesday, February 23, 2021, at Chambers Pointe Personal Care Center in Chambersburg, Pa.

She was born June 17, 1930, in Chambersburg, and was the daughter of the late Peter and Mary (Fisher) Morton.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Wilda M. "Bill" Bolinger, who passed away January 10, 2005.

She was a proud mother of three children and was a member of United Church of Christ in McConnellsburg.

She graduated from McConnellsburg High School in 1948 and from Chambersburg Business School in 1950. She was initially employed by the Tennessee Valley Authority for several years.

She was employed as a deputy in the office of the Fulton County Prothonotary, Clerk of Courts, Recorder of Deeds and Register of Wills for a number of years. She was elected to the position as Fulton County Prothonotary, Clerk of Courts, Recorder of Deeds and Register of Wills in 1980 and served in this capacity until her retirement in 1993.

In addition to her husband and parents, she was preceded in death by her daughter, Rosemary Bolinger.

BOLINGER, RUTH M.

She is survived by her two sons, Randall M. Bolinger (Cheryl) of Mt. Dora, Fla.; and Bradley R. Bolinger (Johna), Chambersburg; two grandchildren: Logan A. Bolinger (Paige) and Alexander W. Bolinger; and a great-grandson, Phoenix W. Bolinger.

A private graveside service will be conducted at the convenience of the family and interment will be private. Kelso-Cornelius Funeral Home in McConnellsburg, was in charge of arrangements.