

BOOTH.

Mrs. Sarah M. Booth, widow of the late John Booth of Dublin Mills, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Gress, Swissville, Pa., Sunday, May 15th, aged sixty-one years, two months and nineteen days.

Mrs. Booth had been an invalid for about eleven years, the result of a stroke of paralysis about that time. She was a lady of kind disposition and lovely Christian character, having been an active worker in the M. E. church since girlhood. She is survived by one daughter, Nora, wife of Prof. E. M. Gress, Swissville, Pa., and four sons, namely: John, Dublin Mills; Emory, Altoona, Pa.; Gilbert, Swissville, and Blaine, Dublin Mills. Her remains were brought to the home of her son John Monday week and interment was made in the Cromwell graveyard below Dublin Mills.
