

CLAYTON J. BREWER

Clayton J. Brewer, born July 31, 1856; died June 17, 1943 at 3:40 P. M. at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mary Martin. Mr. Brewer was born in Warren township, Franklin county, Pa. He was one of six boys, all of whom are deceased. He was the oldest of four sons born of a second marriage, two half-brothers being older than he. At the age of twelve he united with the Methodist church and was deeply interested in the work of the church all the days of his life. He was united in marriage to Jennie E. Yeakly, of Warren township, Franklin county December 31, 1878. In the spring of 1885 they moved into Fulton county where they spent fifty-four years of happily married life. His wife having preceded him eleven years ago. To this marriage were born three children, William E. Brewer, and Mrs. Mary Brewer Martin, widow of Aaron J. Martin, both of McConnellsburg, Pa. and Jessie E. Brewer, R. N. of Philadelphia, Pa. There are four grand children and three great grand children who also survive Mr. Brewer. He also had nieces and nephews residing in Colorado, Illinois, Ohio, and Pennsylvania.

The funeral was held from the Methodist church Monday morning, June 21st at 10:30 A. M. His pastor, the Rev. E. S. Hays officiating, assisted by the Rev. John F. Sammel, pastor of the Lutheran church, and the Rev. J. V. Royer, McVeytown, Pa.

The family wishes to thank all the neighbors and friends for their floral tributes and expressions of sympathy.

Brewer, Clayton J.

18-5-41