BRIDENSTONE.—Elmer Joshua Bridenstone was born September 7, 1866, died November 7, 1889, age 23 years and 2 months.

He was one of the best young men of Wells Valley. Generally beloved by all: of retiring, quiet nature. He was a religious young man and a member of the Wells Valley M. E. Church. He lived religiously and died triumphantly. His life honest, pure, virtuous, religious is an inheritance to the youth of the valley, that they would be wised to emulate and to bring to even greater perfection. His remains were laid to rest
