

Brown

Mrs. Hannah Brown, wife of John Brown, died at her home on the old state road, one and a half miles west of Burnt Cabins on Sunday night, November 25, 1923 at 9 p. m., aged about 54 years.

Mrs. Brown had been a great sufferer for five or six years but bore it all with Christian fortitude and patience. She had been a consistent member of the Church of God for many years.

Her maiden name was Ruby. She was one of a large family of which only one survives, Mrs. Thad Shore, of Dublin Mills.

She leaves surviving her husband and four sons, viz, Merrill, aged 23, Edward, 19, Clarence 16 and Morgan 6 and a great circle of relatives and friends.

She was a woman of fine Christian character and will be sadly missed by many.

She was laid to rest in the M. E. cemetery at Maddensville, Wednesday November 28, Rev. Fleck of Burnt Cabins officiating.

Chesnut and House, of Hustontown Funeral directors.

Peace to her body her spirit is safe on the shining shore.

Brown, Hannah

Husband John Brown

M. E. Cemetery
At Maddensville