YOUTH IS DROWNED IN POTOMAC RIVER

1932

Hancock, Md., Aug. 8 (AP)—Dennis Carbaugh, 18, of Webster Mills, Pa., was drowned in the Potomac River here yesterday. His body was recovered by Robert Mundy 10 minutes later, but Mundy was unable to revive him.

Carbaugh visiting at the home of his uncle, William Keefer, was playing along the river bank with the Keefer children when he decided to wade to some rocks in the middle of the river.

After getting on the rocks, he slipped and fell into the water. Coroner Ross Fite, of Hancock, issued a verdict of accidental drowning.
